

A Big Sensational Sale of Women's Tailor-Made Suits

Mr. Ben Davidson Buys Three Hundred and Fifty Ladies' Tailored Suits for Almost a Song!

Our Mr Ben Davidson, while in New York, bought 350 Tailor-Made Suits from three of the biggest manufacturers of fine garments, at a quarter to a half their real value.

Made of the Finest Materials.

They are not only Beautiful Suits, but they are Serviceable and Practical Suits.

Sale Starts This Week

And from the very start should be attended by throngs of customers.
Without a doubt this purchase was a master stroke in modern retailing, and it will require personal inspection to fully grasp the significance of this announcement.

The Important Feature of This Sale Is the correctness of the great number of models, the choice of the fabrics—mostly broadcloth, and the wide range of colors the suits are shown in. The above in the pith and heart of the story. Further details are uninteresting, beyond the fact that the suits are the biggest bargains ever told of in the papers. We shall place them on sale at the price of $15. No more or No Less.

Up to $40 Values. $15

A "ghastly" sight presented itself in front of the barber shop Thursday morning in the form of a "dummy," stuffed with hay. It fairly presented the results of the life work of the hoodlums who preyed on the joke, and who are permitted to roam the streets at all hours of the day and night, unmolested. And yet it is not all the fault of the hoodlums, either.

The marriage of Miss Tot Marie Orr to Mr Frank Oliver Lean, of Sioux City, Iowa, was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr and Mrs William Orr, on Wednesday afternoon, Oct her 31st, at 2:30 o'clock, at the home of Elmer E Shaffer, pastor of the M E church tying the nuptial knot. The beautiful ring ceremony of the church was used. Promptly at 2:30 o'clock the bride and groom unattended marched into the parlor and took their places in front of a bank of chrysanthemums and ferns, and beneath a wedding veil, and in the presence of the immediate family of the bride and groom and a few near friends, they took the vows which united them for life. The bride was born and has grown to womanhood in Dakota City, where she has a host of friends. She will be greatly missed in the Methodist Episcopal church of which she was a member, and especially in the choir, where she was always faithful. The members of the choir to which she belonged, gave her a very beautiful open glass piece, as a slight token of esteem. Mr Lean is an ex-land, and is foreman of the Lytle Con-let with diamond settings. They left course luncheon had been served,

On the eve of election the democratic congressional committee is circulating the report, that as manager of Judge Boyd's campaign, A E Ward is using an annual pass for the purpose of transportation, over the Union Pacific railroad. Concerning this statement Mr Ward says that on September 10, 1906, Judge Boyd purchased for his use at the Northwestern depot at Neigh, N-braska, a 2,000 mile inchangeable mileage book, No. 27045, form T. N., and for all traveling he has done during the campaign, he has used this mileage book and up to this date, October 31, the number of miles used is 1720. It will thus be seen how little the foundation or reason there is for this charge, which is made by no one knows who, unsigned and irresponsible, but in the true style of a graffer.
